

PPL Electric Utilities confirms continued support for rate case settlement following PUC approval

ALLENTOWN, Pa., June 5, 2026 /PRNewswire/ -- PPL Electric Utilities is pleased to report that, following the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission's approval of its distribution rate case settlement with a minor modification, all parties to the joint settlement have reaffirmed their support and do not intend to withdraw.

The Company has submitted a letter to the rate case docket (R-2025-3057164) reflecting this continued support among stakeholders.

"We appreciate the parties' ongoing commitment to working constructively throughout this extensive review and for representing their constituents so effectively," said Christine Martin, President of PPL Electric Utilities. "As reflected in the Commission's decision, this settlement strikes an important balance by supporting affordability for customers while enabling the critical investments needed to serve our communities safely and reliably."
