

PPL Electric Utilities participating in customer assistance events throughout September

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (Sept. 4, 2026) – PPL Electric Utilities representatives will be offering support at various in-person locations and events during the month of September to share available assistance programs with customers to help make their electric bills more manageable. Customers can review eligibility requirements, explore available options and receive help with the application process.

The PPL Electric team will be at the following locations:

- The Salvation Army Harrisburg
506 S. 29th St., Harrisburg, Pa. 17104
Tuesday, Sept. 8 (10:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m.) and Thursday, Sept. 17 (5:00 p.m. – 7:00 p.m.)
- 2026 Senior Expo with Senator David Argall and Representative Heffley
Franklin Township Volunteer Fire Company
2440 Fairyland Road, Lehigh, Pa. 18235
Wednesday, Sept. 9 (10:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.)
- Capital Blue Cross Senior Fair
2500 Elmerton Ave, Harrisburg, Pa. 17110
Friday, Sept. 18 (10:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.)

PPL Electric will have representatives on-site to answer questions about our payment assistance programs, such as Operation HELP and OnTrack, and help you apply.

Customers who are looking for support should bring proof of identification, proof of income for residents in their household and their bill account numbers.

Customers who are unable to attend can learn more about PPL Electric's payment plans and assistance programs at ppllectric.com/BillHelp.
