

PPL Electric Utilities to Host Meet and Greet Event for Diversity-Owned Suppliers

Event provides opportunity for diversity-owned businesses to meet with PPL leaders

PPL Electric Utilities is hosting a meet and greet event for the leaders of diversity-owned businesses who are interested in becoming PPL suppliers.

The free event will be held from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Friday, Nov. 17, 2017, at PPL Conference Center at Walbert, 1639 Church Road, Allentown PA 18104-9342. It is open to women, minorities, veterans, the disabled, members of the LGBT community, as well as disadvantaged and HUBZone businesses.

Attendees will have the chance to meet PPL leaders, supply chain staff members, and prime suppliers, and discuss opportunities to become a PPL supplier.

“Several dozen people attended this event last year and we are hoping to see even more at this year’s event,” said David Amico, PPL’s Supply Chain director. “We value diversity at PPL and would like nothing better than to significantly expand upon the diversity of our suppliers.”

The event will include lunch and offer opportunities to network and discuss potential supply opportunities. Those interested in attending should register by Oct. 27 by visiting www.surveymonkey.com/r/M3Q6RDX.

PPL Electric Utilities provides electric delivery service to more than 1.4 million homes and businesses in Pennsylvania and ranks among the best utility companies in the country for customer service and reliability.

PPL Electric Utilities is a major employer in the communities it serves. It is a subsidiary of PPL Corporation (NYSE: PPL). For more information visit www.pplelectric.com.
