

A group of approximately ten children and one adult woman are standing behind a table, each holding a book. The children are of various ages and are smiling at the camera. The books they are holding have colorful covers with titles like 'Cautious You', 'Corduroy', 'Diary of a Wimpy Kid', and 'The Cat in the Hat'. In the background, a large sign reads 'COVER TO COVER Let's turn the page on child literacy. A reading and literacy project from the PPSD'. The setting appears to be a school library or a community center.

“Cover to Cover helps children who would otherwise miss out on reading and learning opportunities in the summer,” said Lissette Santana, senior manager-Corporate Responsibility and Sustainability. “Not reading over the summer can cause these young students to fall behind as much as two grade levels by the fifth grade. We’re proud to inspire their love of reading, which helps students stay on track.”

PPL partnered with United Way of the Greater Lehigh Valley, Cops 'n' Kids of the Lehigh Valley and WVIA in Pittston, Pennsylvania.

Through strategic partnerships, the PPL Foundation will support organizations that are working to create vibrant, sustainable communities and are empowering each citizen to fulfill her or his potential. The PPL Foundation contributes more than $3 million annually to a wide variety of nonprofit organizations.
