

PPL Corporation and Partners Reach Major Milestone in Maine River Restoration Project; Secretary of Interior to Make Announcement

PRNewswire

WHAT: Secretary of the Interior Gale Norton will join Governor John Baldacci and leaders from PPL Corporation, Penobscot Partners and the Penobscot Indian Nation to announce a major milestone in efforts to restore Maine's Penobscot River.

WHEN: Friday, June 25, 2004, noon.
Media interviews available immediately following brief ceremony.

WHO: Department of Interior Gale Norton, Secretary
State of Maine John Baldacci, Governor
PPL Corporation Dennis Murphy, Vice President
Penobscot Indian Nation Barry Dana, Chief
Penobscot Partners Laura Rose Day, Project Director

WHERE: Veazie, Maine, on the banks of the Penobscot River just below the Veazie Dam.

Take Interstate 95 north to Exit 187, "Hogan Road." Follow the Hogan road until you intersect with Route 2. Take a left. Look for School Street after you cross the Veazie town line, take a right. Take a right on Thompson Road and then take a left onto Old County Road. Take Old County Road to the park and Veazie Salmon Club.

Contact: Constance Walker, 610-774-5997
PPL Corporation
Two North Ninth St.
Allentown, PA 18101
Fax 610-774-5281

PRNewswire -- June 23

SOURCE: PPL Corporation

Web site: <http://www.pplweb.com/>

<https://news.pplweb.com/news-releases?item=16356>